

Participating Institutions

Core Institution in Asia Pacific
Okayama University, Japan

UNESCO Chair in Research and Education for Sustainable Development
Established the Okayama University ESD Promotion Centre

Cooperating Institutions

37 institutions in 17 countries

Royal University of Bhutan, Bhutan; Royal University of Phnom Penh, Cambodia; Phnom Penh Teacher Education College, Cambodia; The Chinese University of Hong Kong, China; Northeast Normal University, China; Asia-Pacific Education for Sustainable Development Institute, China; The University of the South Pacific, Fiji; Centre for Environment Education, India; Indonesia University of Education, Indonesia; Surabaya State University, Indonesia; Miyagi University of Education, Japan; Aichi University of Education, Japan; Kobe College, Japan; Yasuda Women's University, Japan; Kumamoto University, Japan; Asia-Pacific Cultural Centre for UNESCO, Japan; Abai Kazakh National Pedagogical University, Kazakhstan; Souphanouvong University, Lao PDR; Bankeun Teacher Training College, Lao PDR; Salavan Teacher Training College, Lao PDR; Universiti Sains Malaysia, Malaysia; AlBukhary International University, Malaysia; International Islamic University, Malaysia; Mongolian National University of Education, Mongolia; National University of Mongolia, Mongolia; Sagaing University of Education, Myanmar; Yangon University of Education, Myanmar; Tahachal Tribhuvan University, Nepal; Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand; University of San Jose – Recoletos, Philippines; Capitol University, Philippines; St. Louis University, Philippines; Asia-Pacific Centre of Education for International Understanding, Republic of Korea; Cheongju National University of Education, Republic of Korea; Chulalongkorn University, Thailand; Siam University, Thailand; and UNESCO Bangkok

Core Institution in Europe

Inland Norway University of Applied Sciences, Norway

UNESCO Chair on Education for Sustainable Lifestyles
Established the Centre for Collaborative Learning for Sustainable Development

Cooperating Institutions

34 institutions in 23 countries

Forming the world's first advanced research network Promoting advanced research on ESD teacher education and training of next-generation researchers

Core Institution in North America
York University, Canada

UNESCO Chair in Reorienting Education towards Sustainability
Pioneering ESD teacher education through partnerships with institutions in more than 70 countries

Spread to teacher education institutions around the world, including cooperating institutions

Core Institution in Europe

Leuphana University of Lüneburg, Germany

UNESCO Chair in Higher Education for Sustainable Development
Established the Institute for Sustainable Development and Learning

Cooperating Institutions

25 institutions in 3 countries

Dramatic improvement in research level of ESD teacher education

Sub-core Institution in Central and South America
Universidad Católica Luis Amigó, Colombia

Core Institution in Europe
University of Ljubljana, Slovenia

Faculty of Education, Slovenia's first eco-faculty

Cooperating Institutions

22 institutions in 13 countries

Sub-core Institution in Africa
Kenyatta University, Kenya

UNESCO Chair on Higher Education Development for a Green Economy and Sustainability